DREAM
Overthrowing The Fake Gilbert House
2018-09-09

Dear Jesus,

Sunday, 9 September 2018, 5AM.

Yesterday before I woke up at about 7PM I had a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was in an audio studio being given a tour of rooms full of electronic recording equipment.

There were two tour guides who looked exactly like a husband and wife team who produce a podcast I listen to at work on a daily. Their names are Dereck and Sharon Gilbert, of SkywatchTV.com.

There was one room which had stacks and rows of the newest audio recording gear available. It looked cool. I wanted to stay in the room and study some of the components, but my guides were in a hurry to take me to the next room.

The couple who appeared to be Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert took me to another room, where an infant was laying on a bed. They wanted me to change his diapers.

I did so, and ended up removing three layers of dirty diapers. Then I tried to find a bathroom to dispose of the contents. There seemed not to be a bathroom, and I began to protest that there was no place to safely dispose of the human waste in a sanitary manner.
END OF DREAM.

I woke of very sore and tired. After I had my first coffee, I began to inquire of the Lord Holy Spirit.

He informed me that I was in the HR house dedicated to corrupting the message that the real Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert have to say in their podcast, and that I had been wrestling with the Fake Derrick and Sharon Gilbert.

So, with this dream, the Fake Gilbert House has been thrown down, and its residents cast into the Pit.

Amen.

Blessings...
