DREAM
Who Once Was King Is Now A Slave;
Who Was A Slave Returns As King
2018-12-06

Dear Jesus,

Thursday, 05 December 2018, 10PM.

This afternoon at about 11AM I woke from a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was at the local QFC Grocery Store ready to purchase some groceries I wanted to buy.

I went to an automated self-checkout register, which was located outside in the parking lot not far from the main doors.

As I was scanning my items through, the Store Manager came out to me and asked if I needed any help.

I informed him that I didn't like the self-checkout register, but he paid no attention and just kept wanting to talk. Then I told him I didn't like him, and told him to leave me alone saying that:

"I HAVE TO DO ALL THIS WORK, BUT I DON'T GET ANY DISCOUNT ON THE GROCERIES".

He then left me and went back into the Store without any response. I then finished up what I was doing and departed.

END OF DREAM.

In the dream I was thinking on why I don't like the self-checkout registers. For one, it takes away a job from a store employee. For two, it moves labor from a paid worker to the customer, who receives no compensation at all for their work. And for three, it makes the customer a subordinate servant to the Store, which has the benefit of free labor, but offers no compensation at all to the customer.

Some may say there is an element of convenience and efficiency for the customer, and while there may be some truth in this, there is also the fact that labor is being performed without any just compensation. In this case, the Laborer is the Customer, and is treated like an unpaid servant by the Store Employees and Management.

This is in violation of the philosophy which used to prevail in American business, that states:

"THE CUSTOMER IS KING".

But with the advent and abuse of “New Technology”, the Customer has become an Unpaid Worker, also known as a slave.

Upon inquiring of the Lord Holy Spirit, I was informed that the Store Manager in the dream was the ruling fallen angel from HR (hell’s resources), who devised this shift in Merchant/ Customer relationship, in order to enslave as many Americans as possible. Now, Jesus is returning as King in the Customer, while this same ruling fallen angel, masquerading as the Store Manager, has been removed from the face of the earth and sent to the Pit.

Amen.

P. S. This is not the same as a co-operative where customers co-own the store, help out with the work, and receive just compensation in the form of lower costs and prices in return for their labor.

P. P. S. I woke from the dream after only sleeping for about an hour. I then audio recorded my memory of the dream while it was still fresh, and went back to sleep. For those interested, here is a link to that recording. It is a little over 3 minutes long.

Blessings...
