

Letter 760
TERMINAL DREAM
Pet Torture
2019-03-02

Dear Jesus,

Saturday, 2 March 2019, 8AM.

Yesterday I woke from troubling a Terminal Dream, which I now document.

I DREAMED THAT:

My two pet dogs, both miniature schnauzers, and sister from the same litter, had been sent to an island be isolated and starved to death.

I had gone there to see if there was anything I could do to secure their release back to me and take them home.

Upon arrival, I was shown around by a guard. We made it to an abandoned building where my two dogs were. They were so hungry that they had been eating plastic which they had ripped off from some of the old furnishings.

I wanted to take them home, but was prevented by the guard. All I could do was to say "goodbye" before I left the island.

But they were both very happy to see me.

END OF DREAM.

The Lord Holy Spirit explained to me that I had been at the headquarters of HR's House of Pet Torture, where the enemy practices how to promote pet abuse in the World of Man.

The "guard" was the Devil in Charge. Now, he is no longer in charge, because he no longer walks the face of the earth. And, not too long from now, the House of Pet Torture (from where human serial killers get their first training in murder) will be destroyed.

Amen.

Blessings...
