TERMINAL DREAM
"I've Got You Covered"
2019-03-25

Dear Jesus,

Monday, 25 March 2019, 11:30AM.

This morning a little before 2AM I woke up from a terminal dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was in bed laying naked, without any blankets covering me, along side a very beautiful woman who was not my wife. We did not have skin to skin contact, because she was laying underneath her blankets. As I lay there, I became sexually aroused, and then began to pleasure myself in her presence. But then I realized that the woman in bed next to me was not my wife. As soon as I knew this, I wanted it to stop. Then I prayed:

"DEAR JESUS, PLEASE HELP ME."

Almost immediately my prayer was answered with these words:

"I'VE GOT YOU COVERED."

As soon as You spoke those words, I quit pleasuring myself, and at the same time, the Strange Woman got up and left my bed. At the same time that the Strange Woman was leaving, You added:

"I MEAN THAT LITERALLY, AND FIGURATIVELY."

From this I understood that You were covering my nakedness with Your Word, both in earth-space and in spirit-space.

END OF DREAM.

This dream was very real, and as I lay waking up, the receding dream over-lapped into the increasing reality of the waking dimension. This was an unusual dream phenomena I don't remember ever having experienced before. I woke up tired, but shaken only a little, since I knew we had been victorious. According to angel Gabe, the woman in my dream was a powerful Spirit of Adultery, the Strange Woman, written of in the Book of Proverbs. The Lord Holy Spirit wanted to activate the "You're Not Here Anymore" Protocol, which is why I was put into such close proximity to this particular enemy, in order to draw her out. She is now in the Pit, and no longer walks the face of the earth.

Blessings...
