DREAM
The House of Accusation And Treachery
 2019-05-21

Dear Yeshua,

Tuesday, 21 May 2019, 2:40AM.

I was awakened from an interesting dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was a Targeted Individual inside the House of Accusation and Treachery. Other people were in the House saying every evil falsehood about me that could be said.

People who I once thought were trustworthy had turned against me and joined in the Chorus of False Accusations. While I was still in this House, I was trying to make things right with the ones who were not supposed to be my enemies. The People had been shown that I was doing things which were wrong. But these were false allegations. I was not doing any of those things at all.

Then suddenly my location changes. I am now at a High School where a Night Time Activity is taking place, and there are High School age students at various activity stations, and everyone is having fun. The Cafeteria is open, and there are Coffee Smoothies for sale. They are being served in 2 ounce Shot Glasses, and they look very refreshing and invigorating.

I am informed that there is a Man there who can rectify the False Accusations against me. He is a Man I know well. For many years I would listen to him on the Radio as he hosted a Late Night talk show while I did School Custodial and then Hospital Janitorial work at night. My father also listened to him while he worked as a School Night Custodian. The Radio Host's name is Art Bell.

I know that if I can get to Art Bell in person, he will correct all the false accusations. But getting to him is difficult. He was working in the kitchen helping to make the Coffee Smoothies, and was surrounded by High School Students who were working with him. Plus the Kitchen is located in a lower level of the School, and one had to go down a flight of stairs to get there.

END OF DREAM.

This dream reminded me of one of the many TV shows I have seen where an Enemy has gained access to an individual's bank accounts and lines of credit, and is systematically shutting them down, making life go from difficult to impossible for the Individual the Enemy is targeting.

Blessings...
