DREAM
Jesus Speaks Clothing
2022-09-28

Dear Yeshua,

Tuesday, 22 October 2019, 7:45AM.

I woke up sometime between 5:00 and 5:30AM from a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was trying to get a job in a City. I had my bicycle, and I was looking for the right clothes to wear for the job interview. But I couldn't find the clothes that I wanted to wear.

Then I found myself in a Neighborhood searching in one House, and then another. I was looking for my clothes that belonged to me in both houses. But I was trying to avoid being caught by the residents of the Houses I was searching in because I was concerned it might appear to them that I was stealing their clothes. But I wasn't stealing. I was looking for my clothes and I was just looking wherever I was at. I wasn't looking for other people's stuff. I was looking for my stuff.

After searching diligently, I couldn't find my clothes, so finally the solution that I came up with was:

“Well, I'll just go naked!”

I think I had a shirt, but no pants. To me it was more important that I go to the Job Interview without any clothes on, rather than not go at all.

Suddenly I hear Jesus speaking directly to me. He says:

“NO. I WANT YOU CLOTHED.”

I responded to Him silently, speaking with my heart, saying:

“OK. I'll find something to wear.”

Immediately after that, I turned and saw what looked like three Hispanic Gang-bangers, dressed in all white cover-alls. A Police Officer was present and in the process of apprehending them. I could overhear that the Gang-bangers were having a conversation with the Officer. It appeared, the way I saw it, that he had apprehended them, and he was investigating their activities in the neighborhood, but he hadn't put them under arrest yet. I could see clearly that the Three Hispanics were members of a Gang, and that their Gang Colors were white overalls. The coveralls were their Gang-sign Uniforms. I could tell by their appearance and what they were wearing, and by the witnesses of the Holy Spirit, that they were Gang-bangers.

END OF DREAM.

Post Dream Analysis Says That:

I woke up very sore, indicating that I had wrestled. According to the Lord Holy Spirit, the 3 Gang-bangers were fallen angels who wanted to deceive me into sharing their clothing (white coveralls), since they could see that I was naked. The Police Officer was one of Michael's Soldiers who was assigned to protect me from their deception. Since I saw and heard the three fallen angels, they were sent to the Pit right after I woke up.

Blessings...
