

Letter 839
TERMINAL DREAM
The Powers of Witchcraft and Sorcery
 2019-12-17

Dear Yeshua,

Tuesday, 17 December 2019, 11AM.

At about 5:30AM this morning I awoke from a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was standing outside of the front entrance to the Union '76 Gas Station/Convenience Store, located at the East end of the town of my postal address, and where I get most of my mail.

Standing in front of me and to my right, between me and the Store, was what appeared to be a pencil outline drawing of a man. He was about the size of a Giant, at least 12 feet tall.

Within the center of the Giant Penciled-in Man was standing another man, who was solid in appearance. The Solid Man stood only about 5' 8" in height, and looked fully human. And he emanated a strong powerful Force of Evil.

While I saw the Solid Man's entire form, I was mainly focused on his head and eyes. He had coal black hair, and coal black eyes.

And while standing, I was simultaneously opposing both the Penciled-in Man, and the Solid Man, and was looking the Solid Man right in his eyes.

END OF DREAM.

Post dream analysis says that:

Monday night before I retired for the evening, I received electronic communications from another Seer, a Brother who lives in the Netherlands. I then forwarded the bulk of that exchange to two other Brothers. Please permit me to quote from the email I sent them. For greater detail, please see Letters 833, 834, 835, 836 Volume 9.

BEGIN EMAIL QUOTE:

Brethren,

Yesterday I posted the body of this email on the Divine Council Forum.

Another Seer from the Netherlands (who knows me and my testimony well) responded.

Here are is the exchange which followed:

Hi j9,

Concerning your dog, I do not understand anything what you write about the medical information.

But this is what I see:

There are only two powers who attack your dog, because you are causing a lot of troubles to them in the heavenly realms. So they do evil and strange things to your dog. These are powers, no angels, namely the powers of sorcery and witchcraft.

At this very moment they leave your dog and do not return in the near future. So it should go better with Tansy the coming days.

Many greetings,

(ME)

Thank you Brother. What we see in the spirit is often times more reliable than what is known in the natural.

I do have a question:

Do you have any detail on what makes a "power" different from that of a fallen angel? I have thought off and on about this and have not yet reached a conclusion.

(DUTCH SEER)

Hi j9,

First, it should go better now with Tansy...

I'll try to explain it as good as possible and start with a warning to everyone reading the following. If you like to engage yourself in warring against the powers of darkness it is important to be aware of the dangers. Demons are the lowest in rankings of the evil powers, angels and other beings. They have not much power and influence compared to all the rest. And you probably know they cause a lot of problems.

I mean this, your heart must be sincere before the Lord, there must be no hidden sins and you must be shielded like you can read in Ephesians 6. It is good to come up against the evil forces, but be cautious. I know a lot of people from which the lives were destroyed because they were fighting against regional evil angels. And lost. If you like to do that ask our Lord if this is for you.

Now about your question, j9. A "power" is what it is, just a power. You can see it for instance as an electromagnetic field in an area, or as a cloud in the sky. Usually there is no sharp border to a power. It is a life-form God created, different from angels.

A "power" saturates a person or a region or country with its presence. For a "power" it is more difficult to influence you as a Christian than when you are non-Christian.

Powers are subjected to some hierarchy. They communicate with each other, especially when they belong to the same "family." For instance the power of islam. Big portions of the earth are subjected to him. But he is the head of the sunni and shia and other like powers.

Powers can be over big portions of the earth, while angels can not. Angels have a body and a lot of power. They are also hierarchical organized. But when they have power over a big region they do it because they have other angels exercising influence over this piece of land.

"Hate", for instance is a "power" and saturates big portions of countries. The angel of Nepal is mighty and exercizes his influence over the angels of provinces, who dominate the angels of regions, who direct the angels over cities and villages and so on to the smallest/lowest level.

I myself see angels as humanlike beings with and without wings. In my whole life I have seen angels in another form like animals very seldom. Only 5 times. Although other seers see angels in many different forms. I do see "powers" usually as a kind of "field" that completely saturates a person, animal or piece of land.

Ok, I hope this is sufficient.

Many greetings,

(ME)

Very excellent (Brother). As we compare our different parts ("...we know in part, we prophecy in part..."), the whole picture becomes more clear.

Thank you.

According to what the Lord Holy Spirit revealed in the dream I had last night, these two powers had joined forces, with the Power of Sorcery operating from WITHIN the Power of Witchcraft.

Upon my wrestling with both of them in the dream, the Lord invoked "Rule of Engagement-3", which sent both Powers to the Pit, where they can no longer effect mankind, or creation.*

--j9

"Rule of Engagement-3" (ROE-3) says that any evil spirit I come into contact with is then sent immediately to the Pit (Abyss). Even though the Pit is a spiritual place within the center of the earth, they are no longer in "spirit-space", and can no longer influence or effect "earth-space".*

MORE EMAIL QUOTE:

Brethren,

The fight to improve Tansy's health is not over.

A strange anomaly is occurring which I believe is spirit-space sourced.

Wednesday of this week I took Tansy to the vet to have her blood glucose monitored throughout the day, which they call a "glucose curve".

The desired goal number is I think at or just below the 200 range.

The first reading started off in the 500s, then after giving her breakfast and her first insulin shot, the numbers progressively declined throughout the day. When I picked her up at about 4:30PM, her final count at the vet was 220. Not bad. This may have been due in part to a different insulin mix, and an increase in dosage.

I got Tansy home and fed her dinner. About 30 minutes later, before I gave her the PM insulin shot, I took a glucose reading, only to find her numbers had climbed back up to 513. This was at 6:45PM, only hours after getting the 220 reading at the Vets.

Then, the next morning, her glucose was at 537 before breakfast and medicine.

At that point I began to wonder if my testing kit was malfunctioning. But I tested it with the control fluid that comes with the kit, and it read out in normal parameters.

I made an appt. to see the vet for that morning (Thursday). We were there at about 8:30AM, and we saw Tansy's Vet. He was not overly alarmed, saying that sometimes it takes time to "dial-in" the right dosage. Plus, she will be at the vet's all day next Wednesday for another blood-glucose curve analysis.

Today (Saturday), she came in at 608 at 6:20AM, and 454 at noon. I will testing her again at about 5PM before dinner.

Last night I was pondering all this before the Lord, along with these questions.

How, while using the exact same testing equipment, and the exact same insulin (Vetsulin), using the exact same procedures, do I get a markedly different reading at my home than they did at the Veterinary Clinic?

The Lord then reminded me of two dreams I had over 3 years ago.

Before we get to that point, I would ask if you could please read these Letters, which will bring you both up to speed with the current battle.

And some pictures that go along with these Letters.

Now, to attempt to answer my question above.

In the Letter below, I write about two dreams in which a fallen angel curses Tansy Dog. Here is a quote:

"I was laying in bed. A man (who I now call DECEPTICON) appeared just above me, and showed me a flexible panel screen with writings of deception on them."

"I had been in a conflict with an enemy. One of my little dogs had taken some fire and became wounded."

http://www.letterstodan.com/resources/LTD-PDF-V6-L431_556/V6L450-DREAMS-Decepticon-and-Scaring-My-Dog.pdf

My working hypothesis is that somehow the message from Decepticon's "flying scroll" is still resonating over, or into, my household. This is what is preventing Tansy's numbers from responding to the insulin. The numbers respond positively at the Vet because I did not have a business relationship with them at the time of the dreams. Only here at my house do the numbers act strange.

At this point, I think the right course of action is to ask Jesus to intervene, to ask Him to "de-resonate" the evil message from the evil scroll, and to resonate the Song of His Love for All Creation into my household and into Tansy Dog's life.

P. S. Tansy also has a sister dog: Pepper.

I am open to hear any words you may be given concerning this ongoing conflict. Many thanks.

—(...)

P. S. I have another more recent dream which reveals even more HR assaults against Creatures, mainly household pets.

When I woke from the dream, I was very sore in my upper body, indicating that I had wrestled with a Power level or above.

Additionally, according to the Lord Holy Spirit, the “Giant Penciled-In Man” is the Power of Witchcraft. And the “Solid Man” is the Power of Sorcery, both previously assigned to promote the worship of creation by man, rather than worshipping the Creator, and to bring destruction upon both Creation and Mankind.

This dream occurred after our Brother the Dutch Seer first saw the two Powers, thereby confirming his vision. The Lord showed me by dream the same two powers in a different form, thereby revealing their location and operating relationship with one another other.

In this case, the Lord activated two different Seers, showing them two different angles of the same enemy, to reveal the two distinct, yet related enemy elements. This brought better clarity and superior vision to the Field of Battle.

*The dream mentioned above is the audio version of the one being documented in this Letter 893.

Blessings...
