

Our Father Speaks On Behalf of His Daughter

Given to C. T. Janitor

09 July 1995

The "ruling" came out
On a Friday, no less.
The judgment was made,
Not a word left to guess.

"Six years to the day to pay for her crime",

The judge gave the word,
She'll start spending her time.

The Spirit was grieved,
The Son was concerned,
"This Judge does not listen",
The Father observed.

"He spoke out of turn,
Not knowing the peril,
Of using My courtroom
To seek his own evil".

The Son's heart was broken,
He spoke up with a sob,
"Our Daughter was pardoned
When I finished the Job".

"Our Daughter is hurting",
God said with a tear.
"Let Us make plans
To comfort and heal,
And teach her to hear".

The Father, The Son, The Spirit,
In Agreement Sublime
Said, "Let's show her Our love

In a process of Time”.

“We can each spend a year
Of getting to know her”.
“In teaching her Our ways,
Which others won’t show her”.

“And when We are finished,
We’ll take down the “ruling”,
And tear it in two,
The judge notwithstanding”.

“For the judgment of man
Falls short of Our grace”.
“It tramples, demeans and Gets in our Face”.

“But Our Daughter the Beautiful,
The One whom We love,
Will be showered with Blessings
Peace and Joy from Above”.

“Her soul is our Treasure,
Our highest concern”.
“We’ll give her Our Life,
And Wisdom unlearned”.

“Fear Not! My Brave One.
You have only begun,
To taste of My Spirit of Life in My Son”.

Amen.

A Man with a Broken Heart
Speaks on Behalf of his Lost Love.

“To the Enemy I say this by the Holy Spirit”;

“If you point your finger, it will wither”.

“If you touch her, you will be burned”.

“If you put your hand upon her, your arm will crumble”.

“AND”

“IF YOU SEEK TO DESTROY HER, BY YOUR OWN DEVICE YOU WILL BE DESTROYED”.

“Amen”
